Re: !! Contact Mr. Charles Morgan Immediately!!

My name is Jessica Khumalo, from Bright water foundation Johannesburg.

After a successful completion of the third category Draws of Bright waters promotion program, we are pleased to inform you of The official announcement today that you have emerged one of the winners of the Bright waters promotions program.

Names were drawn from database of contact names from Spain. It was not easy contacting individuals in your country to provide entry tickets due to the cumbersome nature of the program hence names of contact persons representing contacted companies in Spain were entered automatically. We have also tried to reach you on phone but probably due to time difference we could not get hold of you.

Your attached ticket, number !! 12 16 18 86 00 47 33 !! emerged the winning ticket and consequently won in the Third category. You have therefore been awarded a lump Sum pay out of 750,000 (Seven Hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling)in cash, which is the Winning payout for third category winners.Your prize award certificate has been dispatched to your claims executive and your funds have been deposited in a bank insured in your name.

Contact your claims executive, request the original copy of the Certificate of award from Bright Waters,this original certificate copy is very important for the officials delivering funds. They will need to see copies of identity documents and original copy of this certificate of award winning.

Contact your claims executive at the understated contact details
